

Table of Contents

Preface	5
1. Introduction	13
2. The Functions and Goals of the Museum	15
2.1. Statement 1: Robert Fleck, The Museums of the 21st Century.....	18
3. The Museum as a Service Provider	27
3.1. The Museum and Its Environment.....	27
3.1.1. Visitors	28
3.1.2. Sponsors and Financiers.....	28
3.1.3. Competition and Synergy	31
3.1.4. Suppliers	31
3.1.5. Lenders – Museums, Galleries, and Collectors.....	31
3.1.6. Global Environment	32
3.2. The Museum and the Nature of Its Services	34
3.3. Museum Management.....	35
3.3.1. Responsibilities of the Board	35
3.3.2. Responsibilities of the Museum Director	36
3.4. Mission Statement, Guiding Principles, and Strategic Goals.....	37
3.4.1. Mission Statement.....	37
3.4.2. Guideline 1: Example of a Mission Statement: Mission statement of the New Museum, New York	37
3.4.3. Guiding Principles	38
3.4.4. Developing Guiding Principles	38
3.4.5. Strategy and Strategy Development.....	43
3.4.6. Guideline 2: Example of a Museum Strategy Paper: Strategic Planning of a Museum’s Marketing Department...44	44
3.5. The Museum and Its Legal Structure	45
3.5.1. The Museum under Public Administration.....	46
3.5.2. Public-Law Institution	50
3.5.3. Foundation	51
3.5.4. Private Liability Company.....	54
3.5.5. Association.....	54
3.6. The Museum and Its Organization	55
3.6.1. Structural Organization.....	56

Table of Contents

3.6.2.	Guideline 3: Charts, Examples of Museum Organisations..	60
3.6.2.1.	Organizational Chart for the Kunsthalle Wien	60
3.6.2.2.	Organizational Chart Kunsthistorisches Museum.....	61
3.6.2.3.	Departments of an American Museum	61
3.6.3.	Guideline 4: Position Description	65
3.6.4.	Process Organization	67
3.6.5.	Company Manual – Internal Standards as an Organizational Instrument	67
3.6.6.	Guideline 5: What Should Be Regulated in a Manual?	68
3.6.7.	Meetings and Reporting Guideline 6: Meetings – an Example from a Museum Manual	70
3.6.8.	Guideline 7: Reporting – an Example from a Museum Manual	73
3.6.9.	Guideline 8: Example of a Visitor Statistic.....	78
3.6.10.	Guideline 9: Order Management – an Example from a Museum Manual	79
3.6.10.1.	Employees Authorized To Place Orders	79
3.6.10.2.	Orders Exceeding Stated Amounts	80
3.6.10.3.	Powers of Representation	80
3.6.10.4.	Allocation of Employees without Authority to Place Orders.....	80
3.6.10.5.	External Employees	80
3.6.10.6.	Registration of Orders	80
3.6.10.7.	Procurement Requirements	81
3.6.10.8.	Invoice Verification	81
3.6.10.9.	Loss of Discounts.....	81
3.6.10.10.	Signing Authority (Payment Release, Banking).....	82
3.7.	The Museum and Corporate Culture	82
3.7.1.	What Are the Defining Elements of Corporate Culture?	82
3.8.	The Museum and Personnel	83
3.8.1.	Recruitment.....	83
3.8.2.	Guideline 10: A Specific Example Would Be the Announcement of a Secretarial Position at a Museum	84
3.8.3.	Personnel Selection, Personnel Placement	84
3.8.4.	Employee Training, Personnel Development	85
3.9.	Guideline 11: Personnel Management – An Example from a Museum Manual	86
3.10.	Statement 2: Elke Peller-Kühne: Compliance in the Museum.....	88

4.	The Museum and Its Policies	91
4.1.	Statement 3: Chris Dercon: Indiana Jones, and the Ruins of the Private Museum: An Archaeology of Future Knowledge	91
4.2.	Collection	95
4.2.1.	Defining a Collection Policy	96
4.2.2.	Strategic Development of the Collection	96
4.2.3.	Collection Documentation	97
4.2.4.	Preserving the Collection	97
4.3.	Exhibitions	98
4.3.1.	Guideline 12: Example: Exhibition Plan	99
4.3.2.	Types of Exhibition Production	102
4.3.3.	Exhibition Development and Implementation	102
4.3.3.1.	Defining the Theme of the Exhibition	103
4.3.3.2.	Developing a Basic Concept	103
4.3.3.3.	Assigning Responsibilities	103
4.3.3.4.	Preparing the Budget	104
4.3.3.5.	Setting the Timetable and Course of Action	105
4.3.3.6.	Concept Development Including List of Works	105
4.3.3.7.	Catalog Production	105
4.3.3.8.	Technical Production	106
4.3.4.	Project Management – An Example from a Museum Manual	107
4.3.4.1.	Guideline 13: All Incoming Project Proposals	107
4.3.4.2.	Submitted Projects	107
4.3.4.3.	Preparations for the Program Meeting	107
4.3.4.4.	Program Meeting	108
4.3.4.5.	Follow-Up to the Program Meeting	108
4.3.4.6.	After Completion of the Exhibition Project	108
4.3.4.7.	Overall Responsibility	108
4.3.5.	Guideline 14: Exhibition Evaluation – An Example from a Museum Manual	109
4.3.5.1.	Admissions	109
4.3.5.2.	Catalog	109
4.3.5.3.	Press	109
4.3.5.4.	Education	110
4.3.5.5.	Further Tasks	110
4.3.6.	Guideline 15: Timetable and Course of Action	110
4.3.7.	Guideline 16: Form for Exhibition Planning and Approval ..	116
4.3.8.	Guideline 17: Sample Budget	119
4.3.9.	Guideline 18: Sample Loan Agreement	122
4.3.10.	Guideline 19: Sample Curator Contract	123
4.3.11.	Guideline 20: Production Cost Subsidies	124

Table of Contents

4.4.	Hiring Exhibitions.....	124
4.4.1.	Which Points Should Be Regulated in Exhibition Hire Agreements?.....	124
4.5.	Outsourcing and Additional Purchasing	125
4.5.1.	Advantages and Disadvantages of Outsourcing	125
4.5.2.	Forms of Outsourcing and Additional Purchasing	126
4.6.	A Note on Security in Museums	127
4.6.1.	Main Risks.....	127
4.6.2.	Mechanical Precautions	128
4.6.3.	Electronic Precautions.....	129
4.6.4.	Security Concept.....	129
4.6.5.	Museum Guards/Attendants.....	130
4.7.	Education	131
4.7.1.	Educational Work and Exhibition Didactics	131
4.7.2.	Individual Education	132
4.7.3.	Media-Based Education	133
4.7.4.	Exhibition Didactics	133
4.7.5.	Educational Department.....	134
4.8.	Ancillary Services.....	134
4.8.1.	Supplementary Exhibition Programs and Services of an Educational Nature.....	135
4.8.2.	Ancillary Services in the Form of Amenities	135
4.8.3.	Ancillary Services as a Source of Financing	136
4.8.4.	Ancillary Services to Increase the Attractiveness of the Institution.....	136
4.8.5.	In-House Operation.....	137
4.8.6.	Cooperation with a Bookstore	137
4.8.7.	Leasing.....	138
4.9.	Statement 4: Irene Knava, Audience Building	139
5.	The Museum and the Market	143
5.1.	The Marketing Instruments.....	143
5.2.	Service and Product Policy	144
5.3.	Guideline 21: Complaint Management – An Example from a Museum Manual	146
5.4.	Pricing Policy.....	146
5.5.	Distribution Policy.....	147

5.6.	Communication Policy.....	148
5.6.1.	Corporate Identity.....	148
5.6.2.	Advertising	149
5.6.3.	Public Relations.....	150
5.6.4.	Sales Promotion.....	151
5.6.5.	Developing a Marketing Concept	151
5.6.6.	Marketing Strategies and Measures of Marketing Controlling	154
5.7.	Statement 5: Max Hollein, The Mission of the Expansive Museum	156
5.8.	Copyright Protection for Works of Art.....	160
5.8.1.	Statement 6: Axel Anderl, The Magic World of Copyright & Co. The Legal Need to Know in Connection with Museums and Art Exhibitions	160
6.	The Museum and Money	171
6.1.	Planning	171
6.2.	Budgeting	172
6.2.1.	Budget Preparation	175
6.3.	Management Control.....	178
6.4.	Guideline 22: Total Budget of an Institution of Contemporary Art (No Collection)	182
6.5.	Guideline 23: Core Data of an Institution of Contemporary Art (No Collection)	183
6.6.	Financing.....	184
6.6.1.	What Sources of Funding Does a Museum Have?.....	184
6.6.2.	Subsidy Agreements	185
6.6.3.	Fundraising and Sponsorship.....	187
6.6.4.	What Are the Differences Between Fundraising and Sponsorship?	187
6.6.5.	Who May Be Considered as a Museum Sponsor?.....	190
	The Museum and Its World	191
	References.....	193
	Thanks To	197
	The Authors.....	199